

Core business solutions

We are committed to support our clients implement project and general management tasks in the series and mass production. As an independent consulting service for medium-sized and big enterprises, Koehn Industry Consulting assists you in achieving your objectives.

During the consulting process we identify the company's core business. In accordance with our cooperation philosophy, we are thus able to implement necessary measures together with our clients.

Experience has shown that, during the consulting process, our clients achieve a better performance profile leading to gains in productivity, a rise in orders, the acquisition of new customers and an increase in effectiveness.

Advisors and staff members

Koehn Industry Consulting provides more than just consulting services:

Our mission is to develop tailor-made solutions and to identify possible success potentials. However, we do not only offer solutions, but we also tackle upcoming issues together with our clients.

Our services target small and medium-sized enterprises. Over the consulting process we are members of our client's staff and not external advisors.

Customer value:

Benefit from our know-how gained in many years of practical experience and success in the following fields:

- ▶ Optimisation of processes and manufacturing technologies
- ▶ Fast realisation of joint projects and objectives
- ▶ Cost reduction programming
- ▶ Management
- ▶ Initiatives aimed at achieving top line and bottom line growth
- ▶ Development and implementation of sales strategies
- ▶ Reorganisation and recapitalisation

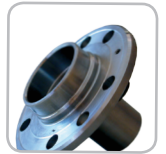

Customer Orientation

Our multi-stage action program is always tailored to the company's particular needs.

The target concept is developed in close collaboration with the customer and the parties involved in order to reduce uncertainties and assure the project's success.

Successful history has proven these theoretical guidelines to be practicable. Our integrated approach involves consulting services ranging from project management to management handover. We also provide assistance for the implementation of those tasks.

„ The secret of getting things done is to act! “

Dante Alighieri

